A. (UNCLAS// GENERAL ASSESSMENT:

This week Governor Paton followed through and allowed UPA military forces to enter the PRP (formerly the NPP) to provide assistance to the PRP loyalists. In a National television address, he declared that the UPA forces would only be in the PRP for a short period and would have limited powers. The main goal of the UPA military is to assist the PRP in a coordinated defense plan in the event of a ROP counter attack. The members of the Liberal Progressive Party (LPP) government are being placed in key positions and enabling a functioning structure within the government. Deeply embedded affiliates of the LPP are emerging out of obscurity and taking charge of critical administration institutions. Some analysis even indicates that this political support network extends into the ROP Federal government. Members of the opposition Conservative Party (CP) are rapidly trying to organize a pro-ROP constituency in the midst of this internal turmoil. One of the most significant developments is the complete re-structuring of the internal security complex in the PRP. The newly formed Internal Security Corps (ISC) will coordinate all security functions that were once under multiple jurisdictions and County structures throughout the former NPP. The 3rd ISC consists of three operational Security Divisions, and each division will be assigned to a territory as its area of responsibility. General Nicholas Christian stated that the number one priority is to assign Wildlife, Fish, and Forest (WFF) and Criminal Resistance Intelligence (CRI) teams to the specialized military units to conduct counter-intelligence operations in rural and urban communities. These units will be under the operational control of the sheriff's department in each county. Since there is still a viable criminal and terrorist threat throughout the PRP, this new internal security complex will also manage other security matters. Organized criminals are of great concern since they can use the chaotic situation to their advantage. The LPP government is prepared to combat this criminal activity by the use of the paramilitary organizations derived from the law enforcement agencies, the 30th Mechanized Infantry Division (MID) National Guard and UPA augmenters. After W+030, members of the 30th MID will be given the option of transferring to civilian law enforcement agency or returning to civilian life.

At this point, many in the population welcome the new regime, but it is assumed that a large number are indifferent. Some reports indicate that the pro-ROP resistance movement is forming rapidly and attempting to recruit affiliates from the uncommitted. The arrival of the UPA military is being regarded differently in the northern regions of the PRP than in the southern regions.

ROP government officials are openly denouncing the secession on multiple fronts as unconstitutional and vow to act with support from the International Community. Senior United States (US) military officials accompanied the first elements of Joint Task Force 30 (JTF-30) who began arriving this week in SPP. ROP loyalists that have formed guerilla bands in the PRP will continue to self organize and attempt to recruit from the population base of support. This week, the ROP again reached out via diplomatic channels to the international community and the US for assistance. The new capital of the PRP in Fayetteville received a few consul officers from Iran and China.

Analyst Comment: The demobilization of the 30th MID is probably being orchestrated to help generate labor as part of Paton's economic reforms and to lessen the appearance of a military state.

(CNN) Fayetteville, PRP (formerly the NPP). 1) Pro-PRP forces assigned to the 79th fighter task force and the 315th fighter squadron provided close air support (CAS) missions for the regime and UPA forces involved in the combined ground campaign. CAS missions are also being dedicated to protect PRP infrastructure. 2) UPA and the pro-PRP forces secured key population centers and facilities throughout the PRP in a combined campaign action. These maneuvers were carried out with coordinated use of Air, Amphibious, and Ground operations. 3) By W+003, the pro-PRP and the UPA forces controlled most of the former NPP. A limited number of ROP loyalists have resorted to urban guerrilla-type warfare. However, the majority of the pro-ROP government conventional forces has been neutralized and abandoned their positions. 4) Pro-PRP civilian authorities began arrests of known ROP loyalists and sympathizers. One prominent figure arrested is Eric Thomas-Shaw, a well-known ROP conservative party member. Many other suspected ROP sympathizers remain at large. Lieutenant Colonel David Hale-Coruthers, who is assumed to be the overall leader of the ROP resistance, is also at large.

Tactical Report (TACREP)/GHT-H089-67 (Exercise HUMINT Classified) National Security Agency (NSA), (W+003) Background information and sources confirm additional familial links between the Christian family and a KGB officer. In the 1980s, Arishna Chaplinski was a promising KGB officer and the daughter of a Russian Administer of State. She gave birth to Nikoli Yurichik Vetrov. After her husband defected, Arishna was reassigned. In 1981, the KGB reassigned her to a posting in UPA where Arishna and Nikoli assumed the surname of Arisha's father, Christiakov. It is believed that Arishna Chaplinski is Nicholas Christian's mother, and that he has been living in Raleigh, NPP since 1984.

5) (U) OTHER (ROP):

HUMINT: IIR 23-500C-ZX-GGJ US MAAG Multiple SIGACT Report Provided to US from RIDNE (W+001 to W+007) ROP EMBASSY, (W+007) Short Format: SIGACT Number, Report POC, Location, Time, Details, Comments.

(SIGACT ROP-S001-HAM-W+004), Reported by ROP 30th MID, ROP forces from A Company, 3rd Battalion, 252nd Armor, 1st Brigade, 30th MID (42% strength), moved on W+002 and secured Hamlet Railroad complex in the former NPP and were awaiting reinforcements from the 2nd Armor Division (AD). They were later confronted and defeated by the UPA 28th Airborne Task Force.

(SIGACT ROP-S003-SBOR-W+003), Reported by ROP 2nd AD. ROP military HQ lost communications with 30th MID units in the former NPP.

(SIGACT ROP-S004-SBOR-W+004), Reported by ROP 2nd AD. A squad assigned to the 2nd Brigade failed to return from a patrol near the Pee Dee River, and the fate of the patrol is unknown. It is suspected that enemy aircraft in the free fire zone along the north-south Pineland border engaged and destroyed the patrol.

(SIGACT JTF30-001-SBOR-W+004), Reported by JTF-30. Two US Marines assigned to the 2nd MEF were involved in a vehicle accident and listed in critical condition. The accident involved an overturned Mine-Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) vehicle west of Shaw Air Force Base (AFB) on SPP Highway 76.

(SIGACT JTF30-002-FJAC-W+005), Reported by JTF-30. A large thunderstorm in the central SPP produced floods in the Fort Jackson main post area. Electric power was lost to JTF-30 for over five hours.

//UNCLASSIFIED// (INTSUM 23 W+001 to W+007)

(SIGACT JTF30-003-COLM-W+005), Reported by JTF-30. ROP deputy Secretary of Internal Security (SIS), Wayne Godchild-Seabird, was critically wounded in a shooting. ROP Bureau of Investigation (RBI) suspects the sniper is linked to the LPP or an infiltrated foreign group.

(SIGACT JTF30-005-SPAR-W+005), Reported by 2nd AD. Three ROP soldiers assigned to the 2nd brigade, 2nd AD were killed by a US Anti-Personnel Claymore mine as they prepared a defensive position north of Spartanburg on the north-south Pineland border. The incident is under investigation and early reports indicate the incident was due to human error.

(SIGACT ROP-S005-FJAC-W+004), The residence of the SPP Provincial Governor, Jon Gordon-Zerley, was attacked with an improvised incendiary device (IID). Two security guards were killed. No group has claimed responsibility for the incident.

TACREP/GHT-H066-600 (Exercise HUMINT Classified) NSA, (W+006) Sources indicated that President Paton issued a Presidential Executive Order to the internal security forces and customs officials to detain all foreign personnel until hostilities subside.

6) (UNCLAS//Not Releasable to ROP) United States Interagency (IA) Actions

The United States National Security Council (NSC) directed the Secretary of Defense (SECDEF) to initiate contingency plans for operations in the PRP. United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) alerted subordinate units and began preparing for direct assistance missions to the ROP Government in the PRP. JTF-30 is directed to begin movements to Fort Jackson, SPP on W+003.

Planning Order DTG W003-0456Z established the following joint task organization and directed units to begin time sensitive crisis action planning (CAP):

(A) US Army Special Operations Command (Fort Bragg, NC): 9th Special Forces Group (SFG) (Minus) forms the nucleolus of the Joint Special Operations Task Force-Pineland (JSOTF-Pineland) for command and control, logistics, and sustainment operations of all deployed special operations forces. Subordinate units: 9th Special Force Group (Airborne ); 3rd Ranger Battalion; 9th Military Information Support Operations Battalion; A Company, 112th Signal Battalion (Minus); 3rd Army Support Element (Atlantica); 422nd Civil Affairs Battalion; 117th Special Operations Aviation Regiment (Minus); US Air Force Special Operations Command (Hurlburt Field, FL); 119th Special Operations Wing (Minus); 1st Battalion, 209th Civil Engineer Squadron (Minus); 3rd Battalion, 2185th Combat Communications Squadron (Minus); 22nd Special Tactics Squadron (Minus); US Naval Special Warfare Command (Coronado, CA); Naval Special Warfare Group 2 (Minus); Seal Team 4; Seal Team 10; Special Boat Team 20 (Minus).

C. ADDITIONAL REPORTING (SIGNIFICANT THREATS)

Air. Nothing Significant to Report

Paramilitary/Irregular/Other.

Several new entities are emerging in the realm of irregular forces throughout the PRP. The largest group consists of elements from pro-ROP military units in the former NPP who were defeated and forced into hiding at the onset of Paton's secession. The groups are loosely organized into two major locations under western and eastern areas of responsibility. The Pro-ROP Conservative Party Underground West (CPUW) is based out of Asheville, PRP and is coordinating resistance efforts in the western regions against the PRP regime. The Conservative Party Underground East (CPUE) is based in Fayetteville and is performing surveillance and support for the resistance in the coast and inland to Ft Bragg. Remnants of pro-ROP military units that have transitioned from conventional units to small and independent guerrilla bands are as follows:

(A) The 1st Battalion, 120th Infantry, operates out of Onslow, Pender and Bladen Counties in the former NPP, established the 120th Guerrilla Band— composition, disposition, and strength are unknown.

(B) The 430th Engineer Battalion, operates out of Lexington and Rockingham in the former NPP, established the 430th Guerrilla Band— composition, disposition, and strength are unknown.

(C) The 252nd Armor Battalion, operates out of Hoffman in the former NPP, established the 252nd Guerrilla Band— composition, disposition, and strength are unknown.

(D) The 1st Battalion, 113th Artillery, operates out of Seagrove in the former NPP, established the 113th Guerrilla Band (aka: Sons of Liberty)— composition, disposition, and strength are unknown.

The resistance presently lacks a command and control structure to synchronize the overarching effort of the resistance movement. At this point it is unlikely that it can support a possible US and ROP counter-attack against the UPA military and the PRP forces. The ROP government selected Lieutenant Colonel David Hale-Coruthers to command the resistance. Some splinter organizations have also emerged and were formed by members of the CP and Protestant People's Party (PPP). These groups currently are not affiliated with LTC Coruthers' resistance efforts.

Violent extremist organizations (VEOs) and terrorist organizations in the former NPP are still capable of producing violent attacks, although, they have been quiet this week. The most notable is God's Right Arm (GRA). It is possible that they are currently recruiting and re-grouping. Insurgents aligned with minority groups have also been notably inactive during this period. It is assumed that they are possibly awaiting specific changes from the PRP before re-engaging in violent attacks. AWENASA [means "My Home” in Cherokee; believed to be a transnational criminal organization (TCO)] and the Celtic Union Insurgent Army (CUIA) are almost 80% demobilized after the formal pardon was signed on W-Day.

PRP paramilitary CRI teams are also employing terror tactics in order to coerce former members of the ROP government to surrender or leave the PRP. The PRP paramilitary and CRI teams are primarily composed of former members of ROP law enforcement agencies who were involved in counter-insurgency (COIN) operations prior to the secession. They are primarily targeting members of the CP and PPP business owners and politicians. Their tactics have also been effective in intimidating many uncommitted citizens of the former NPP into supporting the PRP regime.

D. CIVIL CONSIDERATIONS AND IMPACTS

The conflict triggered by the secession is producing major disruptions to utilities. In the urban areas many civilians are starting to run out of food supplies and clean water. The rural areas are less affected, except where open fighting is occurring.

The UPA armed forces entered the former NPP and conducted a conventional military offensive, followed by a defensive consolidation of positions. Pro-PRP armed forces provided combat support and limited combat operations in support of the UPA military efforts. As the UPA forces entered the former NPP using main roads, the UPA 15th Corps developed an elaborate support system and established primary and intermediate logistical bases for long-range sustainment operations. The overall combat effectiveness of the UPA forces has been very good. Overall, the morale of the UPA military forces is good to high.

Analyst Comment: A select number of LPP members received special training by UPA advisors assigned to the Embassy in NPP prior to the secession. These UPA advisors are from an elite unit, the 15th Corps, also known as the Civil Organization Resistance Development System (CORDS).

A summary of major actions:

Ground - On W+001 and W+002, 0002-2359 hours, the main effort of the UPA 15th Corps and 31st Marine Expeditionary Brigade (MEB) advanced from the north and conducted a series of link-up operations with the pro-PRP National Guard and civilian authorities. The guides provided by the PRP helped prevent civilian casualties during the mop-up operations of the pro-ROP military forces. Simultaneously, advance parties from the UPA 15th Corps and the UPA 1st MEB were also sent to secure the north-south Pineland border until the arrival of the main body. Pro-PRP 3rd Regiment, 29th MID advanced through Greensboro east on international Highway 40 toward Durham and then Raleigh. A second front was carried out by the 10th Mountain Task Force, which swept down the western part of the former NPP, clearing out pockets of pro-ROP military forces and some overt organized resistance and secured the west flank of the ground campaign. The 10th Mountain Task Force conducted a link up operation with the pro-PRP 2nd Mechanized Infantry Brigade, 30th Mechanized Infantry Division. The heaviest resistance of the ground operations occurred on (W+003) in Durham and Raleigh, where ROP loyalist military forces and far-right conservative and protestant population mass support bases established a defensive perimeter against the invading forces. Many public buildings in the cities displayed propaganda graffiti in support of the GRA and dissatisfaction with the secession and the invading foreign forces. Throughout these urban population centers, many unidentified civilians inflicted casualties on the advancing UPA forces. Many civilians were killed in the crossfire as UPA forces retaliated against these snipers and irregular fighters. Some reports of UPA abuse and reprisal killings surfaced and are being investigated by the Piedmont provincial Governor, Steven E. Cook III.

As of W+007, the Combined Joint Peoples Liberation Task Force-151 (CJPLT-151) consolidated along the north-south Pineland border and prepared defensive positions. The units constructed anti-tank positions and obstacles, as well as anti-personnel mine fields. The intent of the tank obstacles is to channel all north-south road networks into choke points covered by fire. The composition and disposition of the UPA forces along the north-south Pineland border from west to east—

(a) 10th Mountain Task Force secured the western part of the border from Jackson County to Gaston County, and its headquarters is at Forest City. Broad River divides the 2nd Brigade to the west, and 3rd Brigade to the east. The 1st Brigade is in reserve and is co-located with the headquarters at Forest City.

(b) 29th Mechanized Infantry Division secured the border from Mecklenburg County east to the Pee Dee River. The headquarters of the 29th MID is co-located with the 15th Corps, south of Concord, at Goose Creek airport. International Province Road 200 divides the 2nd Regiments western area of responsibility from the 1st Regiment, which is located east of the road. The 3rd Regiment is in reserve, co-located with the headquarters at the Goose Creek Airport. The 15th Corps provides command and control and logistics support to its forward-deployed forces and the pro-PRP 30th MID.

(c) 28th Airborne Task Force secured the area from the Pee Dee River east to Robeson County. This is also where the 15th Corps' area of responsibility ends and the 1st MEF's area of responsibility begins. The headquarters of the 28th Airborne Task Force is located at the Laurinburg-Maxton airport and is co-located with the 33rd Transportation Squadron, 22nd Transportation Wing. Province Road 83 divides the 3rd Brigade to the west; the 1st Brigade to the east, and the 2nd Brigade is in reserve, co-located with the headquarters. The 28th Airborne Task Force has soldiers in the Camp Mackall training facility. It is believed this training facility will form the new UPA 15th Corps counter-guerrilla training school for UPA and the PRP 3rd Internal Security Corps forces. The camp is also being used as the 15th Corps east logistical base.

(d) 1st MEF (minus) secured the remainder of the eastern part of the north-south Pineland border. Province Road 701 divides the 2nd Regiment located to the east and the 1st Regiment located to the west. The 31st Marine Task Force and the pro-PRP 101st Coast Guard (CG) Command secured the coastal shores of the former NPP. The headquarters of the 1st MEF is located south of Brunswick on the Columbus County Municipal Airport in the former NPP. The 31st Marine Task Force is co-located with the pro-PRP Marine Special Air Land Sea Response Team (MSALSRT) at New Bern in the former NPP.

Amphibious - UPA Force Reconnaissance Marines and UPA Navy Underwater Demolition Teams conducted airborne and underwater assaults on Sunny Point National Guard terminal, north of Southport in the former NPP. Resistance at the terminal was light. A second wave of amphibious attacks was launched from the 67th Naval Task Force just one mile offshore. The 2nd Marine Regiment then conducted linkup operations with the pro-PRP MSALSRT and members of the 101st CG on Mile Hammock Beach Province Park and Atlantic beach, in the former NPP. A third wave of amphibious forces conducted linkup operations with pro-PRP National Guard and civilian authorities at Wrightsville Beach and the northern part of Carolina Beach, in the former NPP. At the Sunny Point National Guard terminal, an unknown UPA marine supply company conducted a relief in place with the UPA Joint Special Operations Team.

Air – On W+001 and W+002, UPA 23rd Fighter Wing from the 49th Fighter Task Force and the 315th Fighter Squadron from Goldsboro provided close air support, destroying the pro-ROP strong holds and defensive positions. UPA ground forces mopped up the remaining ROP resistance forces. On W+003, the 315th Fighter Squadron destroyed five ROP fighters from the 311th Fighter Squadron on the north-south Pineland border near the town of Hamlet.

Airborne – Between W+001 and W+007, 33rd Transportation Squadron, with air coverage from the 49th Fighter Task Force, supported the 28th Airborne Task Force in a number of assaults and aerial resupply operations.

Significant UPA Operations -

(a) W+001, 0153 hours, The Charlotte-Douglas International Airport and International Highways 85 and 77 were captured by UPA forces.

(b) W+001, 0242 hours, The Raleigh-Durham International Airport was captured by the UPA 28th Airborne Task Force and the 3rd Regiment, 29th MID after heavy resistance from pro-ROP military forces and irregulars.

(c) W+001, 0359 hours, The Greensboro Piedmont Triad International Airport and International highway 40 were captured after light resistance from pro-ROP military forces and irregulars.

(d) W+002, 2253 hours, Key urban facilities and access to the cities of Raleigh and Durham were secured by the UPA 28th Airborne Task Force and the 3rd Regiment, 29th MID, along with forces from the pro-PRP military forces.

J. HIGH PAYOFF TARGET LIST (HPTL)/HIGH VALUE TARGET (HVT) LIST

Updated in separate reporting.

K. OVERALL ESTIMATE

The PRP has orchestrated a very well coordinated initial takeover of the NPP. The overall element of surprise overwhelmed many ROP loyalist units and provided a significant military advantage to the PRP and UPA military. UPA 30th MID and PRP Internal Security Forces have the capability and will to continue the complete takeover of the ROP institutions in the former NPP. The UPA forces have entered phase two of the operation and consolidated forces along the north-south Pineland border. Simultaneously, PRP Internal Security Forces are providing civil-military law enforcement over the PRP populace. Emerging ROP resistance groups are slowly coalescing and will soon be a destabilizing force for the new PRP regime if they gain popular support. The UPA logistics trail is very long and may suffer from attacks if they are not well defended. The Mountain and Piedmont Territories are currently under full PRP authority, and it is expected that the Coastal Territory will lose most of the loyalist support base and also come under control of the PRP government. Meanwhile, President Canteth continues to plead with the international community for military assistance. The President announced that every day the United Nations (UN) fails to act, hundreds, possibly thousands, of North Pinelanders could be killed. The UN did however condemn the events that took place in the cities of Raleigh and Durham where UPA soldiers fired upon unarmed civilians.

Subsequent to the kinetic activities, the LPP government also instituted a viable information operations (IO) campaign to justify their actions in the Continent and international forum.

US forces continue preparations for deployment to the ROP, and the US State Department recommended that all US citizens leave the former NPP immediately. UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) is sending an envoy to the former NPP to investigate reported rapes, murders, and other war crimes committed by the UPA 3rd Regiment, 29th MID soldiers in Raleigh and Durham.
